Die Sabbathi, 19. April 1645.

It is this day Ordered by the Commons assembled in Parliament; That the Report concerning the Creditors of Sir Thomas Dawes, be made on Friday morning next.

H. Elsynge, Cler. Parl. D. Com.

The true ſtate of all ſuch Debts and Summes of money owing by Sir THOMAS DAWES and ſatisfaction whereof, the Honourable Houſe of Commons have undertaken and ſo much of the eſtate of the ſaid Sir THOMAS DAWES, and Maſter JOHN DAWES imburſe the moneys advanced, out of the moneys raiſed by the Poll-Bill, as by the C the proviſo annexed to the Bill for the ſaid Creditors ſatisfaction appeareth.

Principall Debts and Intereſt.

	li.	s.	d.
TO the Creditors of His Majeſties Royall Children the ſum of 7000. li. (being part of the debt due to His Majeſtie) whereof Sir Tho. Dawes hath paid 377. li. 14. s. 2. d. ſo there remaineth to be paid	06622	--05	--10
To the Advance Creditors the ſum of 17250. li. whereof Sir Tho. Dawes paid in part about 3. years ſince 3112. li. 10. s. 00. d. towards the Principall and Intereſt, ſo there is unpaid of the Principall	15000	--00	--00
For the Intereſt thereof from the 25. of March. 1642. unto Michaelmas 1644. at 8. li. per Cent.	03000	--00	--00
To the ſaid Advance Creditors by bonds	17250	--00	--00
For Intereſt thereof from the Date of the Bonds unto Michaelmas. 1644.	04483.	11.	4.
For their Charges in proſecuting the Bill in Parliament, and at the Law, at the leaſt	01600	--00	--00
Summa Total.	47955.	17.	2.

Memorandum, That of the ſums of money, and Intereſt aforeſaid, there is due to Ferdinando Marſham, Eſquire, one of the Advance-Creditors, now at Oxford, the ſum of 1202 li. 15. 5.---

By this account it appeareth that the Lands and Eſtate propounded do come ſhort of ditors, have declared themſelves willing to abate 2. li. per Centum, of the Intereſt both 1600. li. or thereabouts, (notwithſtanding the apparent loſſe which will befall the u Dawes, according to her own offer, ſignified in an Order of the Houſe, bearing ate Lands, and Putney Park, which will adde and increaſe the price of the Lands in Lincoln pleaſe to direct ſome other way of ſatisfaction.

	li.	s.	d.
To divers other Creditors of the ſaid Sir Thomas Dawes, and Maſter John Dawes	11700	--00	--00
Beſides the Intereſt thereof which may amount unto ſome	03600	--00	--00
Summa Total.	15300	--00	--00

Memorandum, That of the ſums aforeſaid, there is due to Sir George Bynion 1000. li. and to Maſter Thomas Cromwell (a Commander in the Kings Army) 4000. li. beſides Intereſt.

AWES, and Master IOHN DAWES, to severall persons for the paiment and and engaged themselves to passe an Act of Parliament to enable Trustees to sell AWES, as should satisfie the same: Or in case such Act were not passed, to re-he Order of the House of Commons, bearing date the 6. of August, 1641. and

For satisfaction whereof, these Lands, and other Estate, are propounded, and (being freed of all incombrances) may be accepted (viz.)

	li.	s.	d.
Land in the Wapentake of Ellow in the County of Lincolne, which were in Proposition three yeers since, charged with the Lady Dawes Joynture of 400. li. per Annum, and Mistrisse Blithes Annuity of 100. li. per Annum	15000	00	00
Roughampton House with the goods therein (according to the Inventory) bought of the Earl of Portland, Park and Lands thereunto belonging	08000	00	00
The Mannour of Alfarthing in the County of Surrey	07000	00	00
The moiety of the Forrest of Gualtresse in Yorkshire, charged with 2930. li. due to Master Alcock	06000	00	00
Putney Park	03000	00	00
Money raised by the Sequestration	04000	00	00
Summa Total.	43000	00	00

rof satisfaction by 4955. li. 17. s. 2. d. in consideration whereof, the said Cre-bch of the Advance-money, and debts due by bond, which will amount to hn upon sale of the Lands) and may be further supplied, in case the Lady g ate the 11. of April. 1642. do relinquish her Joyntures in Lincolne-shire-nolneshire unto 2000. li. pound more, and for the remainder, the House may

For satisfaction of the said Creditors of Sir Thomas Dawes, and Master John Dawes who advanced not

	li.	s.	d.
Master John Dawes by the proviso annexed to the Bill for the Creditors satisfaction, is to pay	06000	00	00

Remaining to be provided for---9300. li. 00. s. 00. d. towards which Master John Dawes offereth an Addition of 1000. li. so as the House will be pleased to make good onely 7000. li. of those Talleys which are due from His Majestie to Sir Thomas Dawes; Which if the Honourable House shall think fit to do, either out of the Revenue, or some other way, the Lady Dawes will have no cause to complain for relinquishing her Joyntures, Master John Dawes discharge the Lands from his Statute, and the Creditors be enabled to sell the said Lands again to any purchaser, which divers of them must be enforced to do (though to their great losse) to satisfie those moneys which they took up at 8. li. per Centum, to supply the then urgent affairs of the Common-wealth.